

Jillian Kreinbring

An eye opening and practical equine functional anatomy lecture series for equestrians of all levels and disciplines who want to learn more about riding and training for equine physical and mental wellness.

Functional anatomy is a key to educated riding. If you know HOW the internal structures work, you understand WHY you are asking the horse to do a particular exercise or movement. With this foundational understanding, you become a better rider, partner & communicator.

<https://online.jilliankreinbringinspired.com/>

<https://wildhorsemountainfarms.com/>

Functional Anatomy Course 1

3 Day Clinic

February 28 - March 2, 2025

$550.00

CLINIC DETAILS

- * This will be a 3 full day classroom style lecture running from 9:00 AM 5:00 PM each day.
- * The lectures will be held in the Bunkhouse, on-site.
- * Light snacks, coffee and tea will be provided. Please bring your own lunch.
- * Limited Bunkhouse accommodation is available for a discounted $60/night. (Bring your own bedding).
- * Limited RV sites also available
- * $200.00 Non-refundable deposit is required at booking to reserve your spot in the clinic ***

Contact Linda @:

Linda@wildhorsemountainfarms.com

503-896-7973

Location: 36100 NE Wild Horse Mountain Rd.,
Sherwood, OR. 97140

